English 270: Introduction to Folklore

Instructor: Sheila Bock
Meeting Time: TR 11:30 – 1:18
Meeting Place: Sullivant Library, Room 244
Email: bock.42@osu.edu
Office: 461 Denny Hall, Columbus, OH 43210
Office Hours: Tuesday 1:30–2:30 & by appt.

Course Description
This course is designed as an introduction to folklore studies. During the first part of the term we will concentrate mostly on key concepts, classic genres, and research methodology. The remainder of the term will be spent exploring some of the ways that folklore is mobilized for expressive, political, and economic ends in our global society.

Course Texts
Martha C. Sims and Martine Stephens, Living Folklore: An Introduction to the Study of People and Their Traditions

One copy of this book will be available in the Sullivant Library Closed Reserves all quarter, where you will be able to check it out for 2 hours at a time.

All other readings for the course will be accessible on Carmen (carmen.osu.edu). Be sure to print and bring to class all reading assignments due each day. Information about course assignments and other announcements will also be available on Carmen.

Attendance Policy

You are allowed no more than two unexcused absences. Additional absences will lower your grade. Please document excused absences (e.g., medical reasons). 5 unexcused absences will result in an E for the course.

Other Course Policies

No late papers or assignments will be accepted. If you miss an exam without a valid excuse, you will not be allowed to make it up. On the exams, you will be responsible for all materials covered in the readings, lectures, films, and class discussions. You must complete all assignments in order to pass this class. Attendance is required, and your active and engaged participation is expected. That means you are expected to come to class having read and thought about the reading assignments due that day. If it appears that people are coming to class unprepared, I will start giving quizzes at the beginning of each class. The syllabus is subject to minor revision, and it is your responsibility to stay informed of any changes. I will be available for consultation during office hours and other times by appointment; also, I'll try to answer questions by e-mail. Improvement will be considered in your final grade.

Library Resources

You will be expected to draw upon OSU Library resources as well as the research and multimedia assistance offered by Kathy Webb and Tingting Lu. Supplementary tools are available in Carmen. These tools were designed to assist you in the processes of research, multimedia production and presentation. Sullivant Library's Multimedia Production Space (MPS) technologies and tools, group presentation production and practice spaces are available during library hours. The MPS student staff are available to assist with your projects. Email: webb.45@osu.edu and Lu.162@osu.edu with specific questions related to your projects.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the representation of another's works or ideas as one's own: it includes the unacknowledged word for word use and/or paraphrasing of another person's work, and/or the inappropriate unacknowledged use of another person's ideas. All cases of suspected plagiarism, in accordance with university rules, will be reported to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. Plagiarism via the internet is very likely to be caught since course-specific assignments, such as the ones in this course, do not match well with what is available on the net, and search engines on the net make detection as easy as the plagiarism itself.

Class Cancellation Policy
In the unlikely event of class cancellation due to emergency, I will contact you via email and request that a note on department letterhead be placed on the door. In addition, I will contact you as soon as possible following the cancellation to let you know what will be expected of you for our next class meeting.

Disability
The Office for Disability Services, located in 150 Pomerene Hall, offers services for students with documented disabilities. Contact the ODS at 2-3307

Counseling
The Counseling and Consultation Service, located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center, 1640 Neil Avenue, offers counseling for all students. Contact CCS at 2-5766.

G.E.C. Category 5: Arts and Humanities
5.B. Analysis of Texts and Works of Art

Goals/Rationale: The purpose of courses in this category is for students to evaluate significant writing and works of art. Such studies develop capacities for aesthetic and historical response and judgment; interpretation and evaluation; critical listening, reading, seeing, thinking, and writing; and experiencing the arts and reflecting on that experience.

Learning Objectives: Students develop abilities to be enlightened observers or active participants in the visual, spatial, musical, theatrical, rhetorical or written arts. Students describe and interpret achievement in the arts and literature. Students explain how works of art and literature express social and cultural issues.
